“ I have known Jody for a long time. We met on the volleyball court. We became friends quickly. Through meeting Jody, I also gained another couple of friends in Andy and Kyle. We played so much volleyball as a team. I will always treasure those times. I know that Jody had his struggles, just like everyone else. I hadn't seen him in a couple of years, but it seems that he had gotten his life on track. My prayers go out to his entire family. We will meet again upstairs on the volleyball court. Rest easy, Brother.

You were the fastest guy I ever knew. God given athletic ability and a good friend for I long time. I wish we could have kept in touch but it still hurts to lose a friend even if we haven't talked in several years. I'll have the memories of our past and I hope Tanner and Tatum the best. They are really good kids and I'm glad they had you for as long as they could. I prayed for you through the years and often thought about you so I hope you know that. I see your dad and Tish when I deliver to them but I doubt they remember us being friends at all. Anyway, sad to hear you passed and I wish the family well. Hope to see you again, Jody Mac. Go Dawgs.
