“ I am so sorry to hear this, one of the nicest most kind heart person I had the privilege of knowing. Loved all the stories he would share when we attended the same church "The Walk" and he was always concerned and interested in what was going on in our life. Heaven is the only place big enough to hold this man and his heart! Much love and prayers to the family, Teeny (Tina) the love of his life, your are in my thoughts.

Joe was a man of God. He always shared his love and compassion for others through his smile and encouraging words and actions. He served and inspired others to serve alongside. I am so honored and thankful to have known him and Tina and worshiped with them. Joe will truly be missed. Much love and prayers go out to Tina and the family from the Sockwell family.
