

John Crouch

November 12, 1961 - May 29, 2023

John Henry Crouch, 61, of Jonesboro, Ga, died unexpectedly on Monday, May 29, 2023 at Piedmont Hospital in Henry County, Georgia. John was born in Milledgeville, Georgia on November 12, 1961. He was preceded in death by his parents Walter and Shirley Crouch, and a grandson Andrew Crouch. He is survived by wife Rosa Gomez of Guadalajara, Mexico, daughter Christina Morgan (Cheyenne) of Haddock, Georgia, sons Jonathan (Jennifer) of Jacksonville, Florida, and Wesley of Gray, Georgia, grandchildren Noah Vaughan, Mason Newsome, Morgan Corley, Cohen Corley, Dozier Crouch, Jaxson Crouch, Sophie Crouch. He is also survived by sister Florella Crouch, brother David Crouch (Sue), and sister Kathryn Barwick (Toby), along with nieces, nephews, grand nieces and nephews, and great grand nieces and nephews.

John's latest employment was with Swift Transportation driving a big rig. Before that, he was employed as an engineer with Marriott Hotels at Atlanta-Hartsfield Airport until the pandemic caused it to close. He was a jack of all trades, reinventing himself many times through the years, adapting himself to situations as they arose with a smile on his face. John never met a stranger, he knew everybody's name, and was friendly and made everybody laugh. He was passionate about many things, including fishing, bowling, horseshoes, and grilling. He will be sorely missed by all who knew him.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Saturday, June 17, 2023 at 5 PM in Williams Funeral Home Chapel in Milledgeville. The family will receive friends at Williams Funeral Home on Saturday from 4 - 5 PM.

“ I’m sorry to be so late in posting this, but I have had so many thoughts running through my mind, that I need to put a few in writing. John is my first cousin, the son of my deceased daddy’s only sibling - John’s father. John and my father shared the same birthday, and...the same name (except for a “ Jr.”) That’s right - two John Henry Crouches born over forty years apart on November 12th. Very, very special. I, and my three siblings, will miss John, who, as others have mentioned, was always smiling. His death will serve to strengthen the resolve between John’s three siblings and the four of us to stay connected - to be intentional about calling, texting, emailing, and most definitely, getting together in person - because that kind of thing matters, and family is important. John will be missed, but precious memories live on, and life goes on. May we stay positive, trust in God’s truths, and live that life well.

I was so sorry to hear of John's passing. I was in school with him and then worked with him at the Airplane factory. There was never a dull moment when John was in the room. Just seeing him made you smile. My thoughts and prayers are with all the family.

“ John was an awesome person & a true friend to all that had the pleasure of knowing him! He & I went to school together & he was always a cut up who made you laugh - if by nothing else than just by hearing his laugh. Prayers to his family & God's comfort at this time.

This is so shocking. We all grew up in Haddock. I remember me , my daddy and John's daddy would go to Easter's sun rise service at the Gray ball park
