“ It's hard to imagine a world without my dear cousin, his bear hugs, his deep voice, and the twinkle in his eye. Wish he could have been with us in Colorado at least one more time, but I'm sure the fishin's good where he is now.

“ Howell Family, your in our prayers. I will miss my co-work and freind may he rest in peace. I will always be thankful for all the memories and the education he shared about the woodlands and recycling business, The world lost a treasure. I lost a great freind. Nobody knew of better BBQ places to eat. God gained an asset.
