“ Hello Betty,

Sorry to learn John has died. My condolences to you and your family.

We were classmates in both grammar and high school. The last I saw his was at a funeral mass for another high school class mate. He will be on my prayer list.

“ Betty- My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. I remember calling you about a class reunion and ending up talking on the phone at length with John about songwriting. He was so enthusiastic about it. It was so good to see you last month and I'm so sorry to hear of his death.

“ I know it was in the last few weeks Betty was at reunion with us speaking about her husband and his need to progress further in his care. Our hearts went out to her and her family as they do now with the untimely death of her beloved husband and father of their children. You are all in our thoughts and prayers.

“ I am so sorry for your loss, John was a good guy. I have nice memories of him when I was a kid visiting NJ. The stories that were told with Uncle Bob, my dad and Johnny. So much laughter. My heart felt condolences to your family.

“ The Greatest American Poet dies at 76!

*He dubbed himself, "The Greatest American Poet",
Yet, the title may be very true.
For once his poems are published,
The general public will give them their due!*

(His works need to be published!)

*Love,
Lynda*
