“ When one in our Chief's Mess crosses the bar all Chief Petty Officers feel a sense of loss. Ours is a Brotherhood born of service, mutual respect and commitment to each other. A Chief is not just promoted, they are appointed to a position of authority and responsibility unlike other military services. From that time forward, they are and will always be "The Chief." It is now time for you to "Rest your Oars" Messmate. You stood your "Watch" and now stand relieved. Those of us who remain will assume the "Watch" and in time we will join you in the Celestial Port of eternal calm free from life's storms. Fair Winds and Following Seas Messmate.

“ I don't know where to start. Tommy was in my life for what seems like forever. He made me an art easel when I was in high school. He did a lot for our family. When my mother needed something done around her house, he would make time to help her the best he could. I will miss talking with him on the phone, and his standing joke that he was watching "Where the lilies Bloom. He was such a funny man and could always make me laugh . He was a good man. I know my sister's heart is broken as well as his children and I can understand why. He love her and them with all his heart. I will miss you.
I love you forever, Vicky
