Wendy and family, you all are in my daily thoughts and prayers during this time. My heart goes out to each and everyone. I will say that your dad was one of the most honest and hard working men that I know of. Milledgeville couldn't ask for a better family in this town than your parents. Both hard working people. Now I can see them smiling in heaven and happy together again. Until we meet again John, RIP. Friends to all, that he was. May God be with each and everyone in days to come.
