“ Bill has been a friend of mine since the 8th grade. He has had a wide group of friends that know him by different name, such as SATLIN, Wild Bill or Air Guitar. He loved photography, fishing, basketball and camping outdoors. I never could get him to pick up a fly rod but he was always eager to go to Hamburg State Park and go canoeing. Eager to go to football games, especially High School game or concerts too.

After Bill's health started to decline we didn't get to go camping or bike riding any more. But we still got to visit and he was wanting me to take him somewhere when I talked to him last. I told him that I would take him over to Macon to eat at Nuway for some chili dogs. I wish we had got to go.

I'm really going to miss Bill and could see the positive impact he had on others. He was a gentle, trustworthy soul that people just naturally liked.

Bill's wife Linda has had to take care of the house, Bill and the family while chauffeuring Bill back and forth to doctors appointments. She's going to need support from family and friends who are near to her. Please keep them in mind during this difficult time.
