“ J.J., Johnny C, Johnnie ... any way you say it ... you were of my blood and were loved. Vince Gill's version of Go Rest High surely fits the bill for your death, Nephew O' Mine. You've enjoyed a good season, some stormy weather ... we all do ... but, you've kept your smile, your song. We'll see you in eternity. I love you. My prayers, now, for Rhunette and the children. May God give peace which passeth all understanding. With much appreciation for your service ... your Aunt "D".

“ I remember, and this has been a long time ago, when we used to go to the Opry and the Jackson family would get on stage and sing. I always requested "Climbing up Jacob's Ladder". Now Johnnie has climbed up Jacob's Ladder and is with his Savior, Jesus Christ. I also remember the fun times we had in the "CB Club". I remember when he took my son, Ashley Boothe to take his GED test. I was so glad when he did that. He was a good friend to Ashley and also to me. Johnnie was a man with a big heart and anyone that knew him liked him. My condolences to the family, especially Rhunette and Daryl. Just know that Johnnie is with Jesus and he will never leave you. He will always be in your hearts. Patricia Peurifoy (Ashley Boothe's mother)

“ Johnny you will be missed by all the Parker family. You were a sweet, happy and loving man. You never met a stranger and everyone enjoyed your humor and talking with you. Rhunette, Brenda, John Jr. and Daryl you are in my prayers and I love you all sooo much. Johnny was a LOVING husband, father and the best friend there ever was. R.I.P. sweetie until we all are together again, I know you are talking it up with Daddy about guns and cars.
