“ It has been a blessing and a real pleasure knowing this sweet man. From the first day we met this wonderful man, I knew he was special. We always had a good time picking on him about Georgia Bull Dawgs, we knew just how much he cared for the team and game. He will truly be missed and words can't even say how much our hearts break for this loss. Sharon, David, you are in our prayers, please kiss and hug your Mother, (Nana) as we know her. He will always be in our hearts, memories and fun time. Love you all!

Knowing Brother JT was such a joy. His wonderful smile and great laughter always brightened my day. Hearing him sing was always a special delight. My sincere condolences to all his family and our Church family. I know he's rejoicing with Jesus today, and that's a sweet comfort. Psalm 46:1 - God's promises will help us in the days ahead. Sending special love and hugs to all his sweet family.
