

J.P. McCullough

November 7, 1921 - December 9, 2008

Mr. J.P. McCullough , age 87 passed away Tuesday (12-9) . Services will be held Friday 2:30 pm at The Georgia Veteran's Memorial Cemetery.

Mr. McCullough was a lifelong resident of Dublin, GA and the son of the late John Thomas and Anna Lisa Manning McCullough. He retired from the US Navy as Lt. Commander .His career started as a Pilot in Pearl Harbor and he flew helicopters in Korea and continued his career as a Pilot Instructor,teaching early astronaut John Glenn and instructing a young John McCain. He was a member of Reedy Springs Baptist Church in Laurens County.

Survivors include a number of nieces and nephews.

For those who wish, memorial contributions may be made to Serenity Hospice or to you local Chapter Disabled American Veterans.

Tribute Wall

“ We will miss Mr. J.B. and his visits to our community. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Milly T. Day##imported-end##

December 12, 2008 at 04:07 PM

“ This man left forever his footprints on the United States of America! God bless.##imported-begin##Susan Graham##imported-end##

December 12, 2008 at 12:17 PM

“ A wonderful man and great uncle. His life was full of color. Those of us that were lucky enough to be touched by his love will carry this memory with us for the rest of our lives passing then down to our children.##imported-begin##Debbie Lauber##imported-end##

December 11, 2008 at 08:15 PM

“ Uncle JP was a beautiful person inside and out. He will be remembered with reverence and love.....always##imported-begin##Delora Reid and family##imported-end##

December 11, 2008 at 05:45 PM