“ Heaven has received another ANGEL! I remember when I was a little girl and I would spend the weekends at Nanny and Pawpaw's house and we use to go into the pasture and ride in the truck picking up those square bails of hay. Then when he would go to leave the house, I would always ask him where are you going now? He would rub my head and say " to see a man about a dog" well I remember one Saturday afternoon he came home with the trailer and it was almost touching the tires. He backed the trailer in and up to the cattle gate. I ran off the porch and over to the trailer to see what he had brought home, he told me to back up some so I did. Uncle Jr. was on one side and he was on the other, Uncle Jr opened the gate as Pawpaw open the back door of the trailer. My eyes were probably as big as the plums on the trees!!When I seen Big Red come out that trailer and into the pasture, I had seen plenty of bulls but nothing like Big Red. Needless to say, I NEVER went back into the pastures again to play around. I had some of the best times of my life at Nanny and Pawpaw's house. All of the family are in my prayers and will continue to be! He was a hard working man for sure. I am pretty sure that he is already messing with them cows up there now, while watching over everyone down here! RiP Pawpaw
