“ Mrs. Scott was one of those beautiful mothers at a place and time in Milledgeville who helped raise a generation of close friends. No one was more generous or welcoming than Mrs. Scott and Dr. Scott. Their door was always open, food was always ready, and it seemed the fun never stopped while we were growing up there in and around the Scott household whether in town or on Jefferson Street or at the lake. My sincerest condolences go to the Scott family, many of us loved and respected your mother, deeply. Thank you all for sharing her with us, I am grieving with you and Mrs. Scott is remembered in my prayers.
