“ It's been four years since Grandma's death, but I still remember her funeral being the most memorable I have ever attended. She went to a better place, but it doesn't ease the pain you feel when you remember someone alive and happy now gone. Thank you Williams for making this easier for our family as well as a special "send-off to glory" for my Grandma. :) God smiled when He opened the gates for her and I know He told her "Well done, my good and faithful servant!"

“ Knowing Judy was such a blessing to me. She was such an inspiration when I first started volunteering @ Crossroads Pregnancy Center. I'll always remember her and love her for being such a hero of the faith and strong Christian woman. Only eternity will tell the many babies and souls saved because of her untiring efforts. She was so young, and it's so hard to let her go.....knowing she's with Jesus and I'll see her again certainly helps. My prayers are for her sweet family. Psalm 121##imported-begin##Sandra F.
