“ Words can not stop the pain, but from personal experience, I can tell you, it does ease it. When my brother in-law was killed in a car wreck many years ago, an employee of my husband sent a card that read " he is not gone, just away " it soothed me to read it, I still have it 30 years later. Kandice's dad,my brother, was in the car with my brother in-law, and although he survived that, he died 10 years later Also, the song, "how can I help you say goodbye" by Patti Loveless, helped me with my brother Glen's death. I still cry when I hear the song, but I know I'm not alone.
With all my heartfelt sympathy.
