

Katherine Evett

March 25, 1916 - December 6, 2012

Katherine Rose Dial Evett, aged 96, died peacefully on December 6th, 2012 surrounded by her family in Macon, Georgia.

Katherine was born on March 25, 1916, in West Frankfort, Illinois, the youngest daughter of Judge Horatio Ransom Dial and Minnie Belle Harris.

Predeceased by her parents, eleven brothers and sisters and her late husband Samuel Clinton Evett, Katherine is survived by her six children, Suzann Garrity, Sylvia Kay Evett, Sarah Evett, Scott Evett and wife Marcia, Steve Evett and Stacey Pennington and husband Christopher and her twelve grandchildren, Wendy, Adam, Kara, Timothy, Rufus, Moss, Aurora, Ashley, Aaron, Trevar, Kelly and Samuel and her three great-grandchildren, Isabella, Brendan and Spencer.

Katherine and Sam raised their six children in Munster, Indiana where she enjoyed her many friends and family who she loved and cherished. When Sam retired they returned to Southern Illinois. Sam passed away June 1st, 1991 and Katherine then moved to Macon, Georgia where she lived close by her daughter Silvia Kay and her grandchildren.

Katherine was a member of Tri-Kappa and DAR, and she was Miss Franklin County in Illinois, representing Franklin County at the Chicago's World Fair in 1934.

Katherine loved life and her family. She was always supportive and caring, thinking of others first. She will be remembered for her exuberant approach to life and her wonderful sense of humor, her ability to make each one of her family feel that they had a special bond between them. Katherine's gift to all those that knew her was how she showed her love and kindness toward them, how she cared for them and how she took a genuine interest in their lives. She will be dearly missed by all.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday December 15th, 2012 at the First Presbyterian Church of Herrin, IL. The service will start at 10:30 am. In lieu of flowers the family has requested a donation be made to Pine Pointe Hospice in Macon, Georgia in the name of Katherine Rose Dial Evett.
