“ O God, who hast commanded us to honor our father and our mother; in Thy mercy have pity on the soul of my father, and forgive his his trespasses; and make me to see him again in the joy of everlasting brightness. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

o how i remember like it was yesterday, as a kid all the fun times we had, all the comfort you gave me and the laughter that you provided to us, i remember when you where there for me thru the good times and still stayed by my side thru my bad times to...

you will always be missed, even tho ill see you again in a better place. rest in peace with much love your son,
