“ I am sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my condolences at this painful time. Losing a loved one is distressing and as comfort is needed from family and friends, it is my hope your family will find comforting the promise at Isaiah 25:8 where we are assured that "death will be swallowed up forever." It is my hope your family will find strength to endure during the days ahead.

“ Oh how our hearts are hurting for you all, Evelyn and Elbert, Gary and Myra, and all of the children. This was such a sad, sorrowful loss. We cannot express in words just how heartbroken we are for you and your family. Time and distance may have kept us apart, but we've always thought the world of your family and of how awesome Keith was as a young boy and as an adult. His tragic passing will change everything in your lives now, but somehow God will carry you all through these difficult days and even hours ahead. May God wrap His Loving Arms around each one of you and surround you with His Love and Peace and Comfort as you walk through this sorrowful journey. May you find comfort in the joy and happiness your Precious Son brought to your lives, and may God fill your hearts and minds with beautiful memories of his love for you. We love you and are praying for you all. <3

“ My deepest sympathy in your time of loss...Keith was a great friend, someone that would make you smile no matter what you were going thru. I'll never forget the trip we took up the mountain to report a 4-wheeler. When we got to the top we stopped at one of those lookout spots and got out and took pics of the scenery. He told me he hated coming up cause he was always afraid the truck wasn't gonna stop going back down.

“ Evelyn, Elbert, Gary and Children,
There are no words I can say that will ease your pain right now. Keith was a good young man, whom I have known from a baby. He was like my nephew because I had watched him grow up and was always visiting his mom. He would see me in the grocery store and always asked if his mom knew I was in Milledgeville. We had some happy memories. I won't forget his sweet smile.

He was a good father and recently became a grandfather. He was so proud of his grandson.

May God wrap his arms around you all during this time and give you comfort.

God bless you,
Lynn and Family

“ I believe that once upon a time a few of us gathered at his house to watch a pay-per-view of wrestling. That was a very long time ago. I was not close to Keith but I do remember him some from years ago. And from what I remember he was a good guy. Benny however, knew him well and have been friends for many years. He had just spoken to Keith last Monday at the store and could not believe the news of his passing. He told me that Keith was one of the best guys he knew. Both of our hearts hurt for him and the family. He will be missed by many. Prayers to his family and friends. Very sorry for your loss.
