“ This morning as I returned to my office after several days absence, I was saddened to read the news of Ken's passing. My high school years at Towers hold many special memories, and Ken as class president and athlete are prominent in those thoughts. Ken was always upbeat, enthusiastic, and encouraging to those around him. It was a pleasure to renew my acquaintance with him at a couple of our reunions, and he will be missed by many. My thoughts and prayers will be with your family in the days ahead. "Those who trust in the Lord are steady as Mt. Zion, unmoved by any circumstance." - Psalm 125:1 May you be steady and find peace and comfort in the days ahead.###imported-begin###Steve O. Payne###imported-end##

“ Campbell family, I am sorry for your loss. Ken and I were childhood friends, going to elementary and high school together. We played baseball together for years. I will always remember Ken's fun loving spirit and laughter. I am praying for you even as I type. May the Lord bless you with his grace and peace.###imported-begin###Jimmy Donovan###imported-end##

“ The Blakeney family is heart-broken. Many times, over the years, we have recalled various "Ken stories" -- even young members of our family who had never met him would laugh and enjoy the memories.

Ken was one of those rare people who managed to touch numerous lives with his positive outlook. He had many talents and abilities but, possibly, his greatest contribution was his contagious smile and the gift of laughter. We should all strive to live by his example -- to make the joy of living our main priority and to share that philosophy with everyone we meet.

Our thoughts and prayers are with all of Ken's loved ones and friends. We were lucky to have known him.##imported-begin##Deborah Blakeney Jones##imported-end##
