“ Miss Bonnie, Kavan and Keely-words can't express my deepest sympathy to you and your family. Kim and I graduated LPN school together, and spent countless hours over her kitchen table. She is one of the ones who confirmed that one can do anything you set your mind to. Such a beautiful person. Kavan and Keely, leave no doubt that you mother will continue to watch over and guide you on your paths, and when you sway and stub your toe, that it will be her reminder to you . May god give y'all strength and peace.

*“ I send love and sympathy to all family and friends. I could not imagine what y'all are all facing and have faced over the past couple days. Kim will be greatly missed by all of her Green Acres family! I'm so thankful Kim was one of my nurses on one of the halls I'm over. Please let me know if there's anything I can do to help! I'll continue to keep y'all all on my mind and in my prayers!

Love you girl!! I know you are lighting up heaven with those amazing eyes, fabulous smile, and loving heart. You will be sorely missed. My heart goes out to all your family.

I lit a Red candle for you because of our mutual love of the Dawgs. Football Saturdays will not be the same without you posting Go Dawg comments. Denise and I will just have to take up the slack and post more. ;)

“ i am finding it so hard to believe that you are now in the presence of our Father in heaven. I am so glad that we talked and prayed together often. Our lives have been meshed together since we were little. We even got our drivers licenses together. As the days go forward I will miss you so much my friend. I found myself dialing your number this morning like so many other days only to remember that you are not here today. I am so proud to have been your friend for our entire lives. I will miss staying up all night talking and laughing and praying with you. until I see you again I love you Kim.

“ I've spent the last 2 days questioning God and wondering how and why could he have allowed this to happen but after quite a few tears I realized that he always has a purpose and over the past few months of talking and laughing with you til I cried I realized that you taught me that with God you can endure anything and to never give up! We always ended the conversation with I love you and that's how I'll end this my friend! I love you! Until we meet again.....

“ I have known Kim a long time, but I met her personally about 4 years ago at a cookout in Milledgeville, Ga. She was so happy. Sweet, kind and friendly to me. She and I began calling each other and she would share some personal information with and and I would PRAY FOR HER AND ALSO CONSOLE HER... I just would like to say that I am sadden and hurt to hear this news and I will keep her kids and family in my prayers asking GOD TO GIVE EACH ONE OF YOU STRENGTH TO ENDURE THIS PAIN AND SADNESS YOU ARE GOING THROUGH AT THIS TIME. “ Kim and I were best friends when my girls were little and I was there when she was pregnant with both of her kids. We spent every waking moment together at that time. I remember the walks we had from my grandmother's house to her house and vice versa. We got back connected through Facebook a few months back. I loved her then and I love her now and my heart is really heavy and saddened. R.I.P. my sweet friend. We will meet again.
