“ I have great memories or reunions with you all. Oyster shucking on the back patio. James & Laura, and my Mom and Dad fishing -- as they left Leshia and I to fend for ourselves in the camp all day. That still doesn't seem right :-). I always enjoyed Laura's fun loving character. There was always some wise-cracking fun when she was around.

My wife Julie, is now famous at our church for the 7 layer bars that Laura used to make. I thought those were the best things ever!

Julie and I are thinking of you all and praying that God provides comfort in Laura's passing.

“ I offer my heartfelt sympathy for the loss of you Mom and Grandmother. I remember her fondly from my teenage years. I don't think I have ever had any divinity as good as what your Mom made at Christmas! Seems like I had a lot of meals at her table! I always felt welcomed and loved. I am glad I knew her. I send my love to all of you.
