“ Laura and I were roommates in Augusta in the mid-sixties. At 18 years of age, she was a trusting, compassionate, cheerful and loving person who found good in everyone. Decades later, she was still the same! Suzie, I know you'll miss your dear Sister, and pray that the good memories will be a comfort. Chad, your Mom was a sweet, sweet friend and I'll always cherish her memory. May each of you feel God's presence even in your sorrow.
