“ Lauren, I remember when your mom and dad flew his plane up to ATL and we came down from Brenau and met them for dinner and went to see Evita. That was fun. It's never easy losing your parent. Try to keep all the good memories close in your heart. It will ease the pain.

“ Lauren, I am so sorry for your family's loss - I know it is especially profound for you, but know that you have a LOT of friends who love you, Gal. I recall how joyous you would get every time your dad came to visit when we lived together. He's a tremendous spirit who will, no doubt, envelope you and the boys for the rest of your lives.... God bless you, your mother, your brother, and sons during this time. ? Kim S.

“ SueEllen, I am so sorry to hear about your loss. The world is a little less bright without Larry here. “ SueEllen and Family,
How can we tell you what Larry's friendship meant to us?
"Pal" was a shining light when he walked into a room. His smile shone light on everyone it touched and those magic fingers played a piano like an angel would play a harp. Our hearts are heavy now, but the memories we have of Larry will be with us forever.
We both love you, SueEllen, and if there is anything we can ever do, call us!

Larry will be with us always,
