

Lee Cannon

August 21, 1981 - October 16, 2025

Rayford “Lee” Cannon, Jr went to his Heavenly home after suffering an unexpected health issue.

He is predeceased by his mother, Marie Cannon of Toombsboro, Ga. He is survived by his father; Rayford Lee Cannon, Sr. of Toombsboro, Ga, brother and sister-in-law; Thomas Eddie & Felicia Knowles, Jr of Milledgeville, Ga, 2 aunts; Sandra Hill of Milledgeville, Ga and Ann Mason of Eatonton, Ga, 5 nephews, 1 niece, several cousins and a good family friend; Milton Strange of Toombsboro, Ga.

Lee enjoyed waking up and just taking a day trip on a whim. It could be anywhere from Cherokee, NC, Columbia, SC, Savannah, GA and sometimes an overnigher to Gatlinburg and Pigeon Forge, TN. He enjoyed visiting with family and friends, taking Milton to the mountains with him and Rayford, and scaring him (sorry Milton), to Savannah where he enjoyed the amazement on Milton’s face when he saw the planes coming over them to land on the runway next to them, and riding thru the Savannah Wildlife Refuge, then to see his cousin with that mini horse (English Mastiff) that Milton was always scared of.

UPDATE: Lee bequeathed Milton some bravery as Milton came to visit that mini horse and actually petted her. We know Lee was enjoying that one.

In lieu of flowers, if you wish to make a donation, the family asks that donations be made to Williams Funeral Home in Milledgeville, GA to support the family with unexpected funeral expenses in Rayford Lee Cannon, Jr’s honor.

Graveside services for Lee Cannon will be conducted Tuesday, October 21, 2025 at 2:00pm in Pleasant Plains Cemetery in Danville with Rev. Larry Glover officiating.

“ I'm so sorry for yall's loss, Lee was such a sweet & kind person that wouldn't hurt a fly, and would & always ready to do a favor for someone or lend a hand. I actually got to say hey to him through someone else's phone I was talking to not to long ago when he was on one of his road trips, first time I had spoken to him in years. But I have so many memories of him when we were all younger & I'm so glad of that... You will be missed LEE LEE...
