

Lena Watkins

March 7, 1940 - September 11, 2021

The death of Ms. Watkins occurred on September 11, 2021 in Baldwin County. A caring dedicated nurse that began her career as surgical assistant and office nurse/manager for several physicians in the Milledgeville area. After losing her brother to cancer, she became a Hospice volunteer while also working private duty with a Nursing Agency. She then chose to further her career by attending Georgia Military College, Georgia College, and Middle Georgia College, to specialize in all areas of her profession. Ms. Watkins was well loved and respected by classmates, professors, co-workers and clients. After thirty years of nursing, she retired, but continued caring for others as needed.

Survivors include three daughters; Wanda Helmly, Renae Jenkinns, both of Milledgeville, Ga., and Lainya Hutchins of Bowden, Ga. And one son Wade Watkins, Juliette, Ga. Her youngest son Ronny Watkins is deceased. Many grand and great grandchildren, nieces and nephews also survive.

Private burial and service was held at Harmony Baptist Church on Deepstep Highway, Sandersville, Ga. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to Wounded Warriors, Hospice, or to Fund for Cemetery Upkeep at Church stated above.

Williams Funeral Home had charge of the arrangements.
