“ Levi’s mother, Deborah, was my sister & while she would work on her doctorate, Levi & Jay would come to my house & having 2 sons of my own, Cliff & Les, they would spend many hours playing together. They were the perfect babysitter for each other while I would get things done too! Levi being the youngest of the 4 boys, had to learn quickly to be tough because boys being boys & mischievous ones at that, he had to stand up for himself. One time in particular, the boys played a trick on Levi (being about 6 years old). I had goat’s milk in my fridge & when they were all helping themselves to a glass Of milk, they poured him the goat’s milk & watched him take that first swallow & all busted out laughing when Levi spewed it out with a twisted & contorted face showing how awful it was! So Levi learned to hold his own early🙄. He had a beautiful caring heart even if he was a tough, rough Harley Motorcycle riding guy & president of the Bone Head Motorcycle Club.❤️ Love you Levi & give my love to your mother & dad cause I like to think that they lovingly escorted you to heaven welcoming their “baby” home❤️

“ Cousins are like siblings was true when we were growing up. We all gathered at Granny's so often. I also remember babysitting Levi and I always had to play Star Wars and be Princess Leia. He had such an imagination as a child. Even though now we do not see each other as much we always know family is near. Praying for you and your family Jay. Also praying for Amy and the kids. Love to all.

“ I still can't wrap my head around this without getting emotional. Levi and I always got along and he was so cordial around me. This is so hard to believe and it reminds us how fragile life is. I ask for prayers to Amy, Dylan, Dallas and Josh as they grieve and try to go on. This is such a tragedy but we know that we have no control of our lives and we are at the mercy of Our Heavenly Father. We have to remind ourselves that to live each day to the fullest and be humble and kind to one another. Let us love one another as He has loved us. May you be in Peace Levi forever more. I will always remember you and your smile. A beautiful soul taken away much too soon. I give my love to all the family at this most difficult time. My deepest condolences.
