“ Ma in law was a one and only. If you have a mother in law you would want them to be like her. When I had a question about flowers I knew to call her.

One of the memories I have of her is the day before she passed away was, Grant and I was late getting to see her so when I come in the room she made me lay across her legs and started spanking me cause we were late. Everybody was already there so they all got a good laugh including ma in law.

I never doubted her love for me cause she left her for babies with me, and they meant the world to her .

Glad shes not suffering anymore. She will always be in my heart and never be forgotten. She will be missed

“ My mom loved to decorate her home.....she would had lots of glassware pictures Knick-knacks very tastefully placed BUT she wouldn't decorate it and leave itshe was constantly changing it when you walked in her house you never knew were the couch might be next even in her finally weeks if I turned her in bed I had to not just turn her but move the whole bed and chairs around so she had the best view lol..... one day I was exhausted from moving it and told her I didn't think I could move it one more time she said ok but not long later she pressed the call light and got the CNA to move it lolshe was feisty and like to dress up.... her favorite thing to wear was black and red. So she is wearing my suit Sure do miss the 25 phone calls a day from her ...

I am saddened to learn that Lila has passed. I remember our last conversation on last Thursday when I asked her how long will she be at that facility and her response was, "until heaven."

To Lila's family, she loved her fur babies but she loved her family. Oh how excited she would be as it would come up to the holiday dinners at home and how everyone would be together.

My sincere condolences,

Lila's neighbor,

Cynthia
