“ Autumn, Gray, and families ,I feel tremendous sadness at Linda's earthly passing. It is difficult to comprehend the loss of my treasured friend of 50 years. We began our friendship at GA Southern, and I was a bridesmaid in her wedding. When Linda talked about her family, you could always hear the love in her voice. She was a VERY KIND, CARING person, as well as a STRONG CHRISTIAN. Linda will be greatly missed by all. With Deepest Sympathy and Prayers, Julie Ferguson

“ To Autumn, Gray and your families. We are so sorry to hear of your mother and sister's passing it caught us all by surprise. Our thoughts and prayers are with you in in these trying times. I have many fond memories of Linda while growing up but two that have always been my fondest was her PATIENTLY teaching me how to play canasta when I was around 8-9 years old and the special way she made cinnamon toast in the oven at Grandma Connett's house in Greenville PA. I can still smell how good they tasted. Linda was always a great teacher, she just has a better classroom to teach in. We are sorry that we cannot make it to Georgia in time for the services but please know our prayers will. Rob Fischer and family, Christine, Emily and Madelyn.
