“ Lorianne,

Where do I start? I met you in 8th grade in band and you were in 9th. In highschool, probably my 10th and 11th grade year you spent more time at my house than yours. Then after college I moved back in town and left home and moved in with you an Granny for awhile. I was there when your first on was born, and though we have not been close for the last 15 years, I will never forget all of those times that we were. It is surreal to me to be writing on this page. Your children and Terrence are added to my daily prayer list and I wish that I could have come down to pay my respects to you and your family. I am sorry that you were in so much pain and sorrow. May God Bless your family.

“ Words will never express the sadness the Prosser family have in their hearts for you all at this moment. As life continues to throw each of us trajectories that we can't explain, please know that in the end; God is able. As we remember Lorianne this week, let's all continue to keep her memory alive in our hearts by giving unconditional support and unmeasured love to Terrance, Jr., Jada, and little miss Leah.
In conclusion, we the Prosser family from Texas and abroad, send our sincerest condolences and prayers.
