“ I can't begin to express the love that I have for "Pookie". She was one of the sweetest and most loving people that I have ever known during the sixteen years that I was a part of the family. Myself and my boys will miss her terribly. I know that she is now with Heyward and the rest of her family that she missed with all of her heart and talked about often. She was one of a kind and will be missed terribly by all that she touched and loved. Rest in peace and I will think of you often as I cherish the wonderful memories that I have of one of God's Angels.##imported-begin##Lise' Brantley##imported-end##

“ Dearest Tim,

My dear friend, I feel so helpless because such an awesome burden has been placed upon you. My heart aches because you are so dear to me. Yet those who love life and know the meaning of death tell us some important things. Remember that peace comes with resignation and death is really not the end.

There will be time to say goodbye and put things to rest. This is good. It will be difficult for those who loved your mother to say goodbye. But even though we can't understand it now, there will be meaning to all of this.

'Pookie' was unquestionably a 'gift' to all our lives. She brought so much unconditional love into my life, and for this, I know I have grown a little stronger. Her charm, wit, and humor has left an indelible footprint on my heart that will carry me strong through my remaining years.

Know that you are always in my prayers and just a phone call away if you need me near.

*With all my love and prayers for you and Betty Jean,
Jimmy##imported-begin##James Whitaker##imported-end##*
