“ Dear Ron and family,
I am saddened to hear of your mother's passing. I was praying that she'd get well. My heartfelt condolences to you and your families. I am So glad and feel fortunate that I got to meet her and your father all those years ago. I enjoyed their visits here. Where does the time go! I was glad I got to visit your mother when she was in Rhode Island a few years ago. It was always nice to see her when she she came to visit and also when your dad was still here. I felt as though we could always converse even though we hadn't seen each in a long time. I enjoyed the company of your mom very much. She was such a joy to be around. I loved her. I know that she leaves a part of her with all of you.
She was truly, a lovely lady!
Love to you all,
Theresa

“ To the family of Louise and Clayton , our sympathy for all the family at Louise's passing. When they lived in Chickamauga, they were faithful members of First Baptist and they were loved by many people. Thanks to Jeannie for calling Jimmy to let us know. God Blessings to all
