It was precious you girls singing together. I loved that Ben Scott sang that song Calvin desired to have sung! It was a joy to see Calvin raise an arm as he was blessed by the song. How special for him and all of us who heard it! From the beginning of the opening prayer to Pam Hood solo singing, and concluding with John's preaching, right to the end of Calvins heartwarming message to everyone, it certainly was a beautiful, uplifting memorial service. Thank you for sharing your precious celebration with us!

“ Coming across the news of Mrs. Minter’s death on FaceBook has brought me to a sudden stillness. Milledgeville didn’t seem so far away as long as I can have interaction socially on the family news through the sharing on FaceBook, but right now, I feel the distance, because I want so much to be there with you all. Your mother in many ways became my mother, your family-my family. My heart is full of tender memories as much as it is deep sorrow for such a weighty loss of a beloved wife, mother, mother in law, sister, aunt, cousin, grandmother, great grandmother, and wonderful friend. I loved her unique sweet chuckle when she laughed. She also had the greatest servant heart. Her speech was full of grace. I send my love to each of you.

“ Aunt Louise only seemed to ever smile... can't say I've ever seen her frown ...and her strength, love, and whole heartedness shows in each of her children and grands and great grands! Surely proverbs 31 was written for her. She made such an enormous center for her family and leaves an irreplaceable spot. Truly will be missed by everyone but her laugh and smile is such a wonderful memory to cherish!

“ To all those who love my sister, she would've been 'embarrassed' with all the sweet memories and remembrances. She was a very humble, a Proverbs woman if I ever knew one. I will miss her here in this world, but, I am more and more, looking with anticipation, the reunion she's experiencing today and I hope to some day. May God be close to her family. Her daughters and their daughters (and sons) and THEIR daughters and sons ... Rest in peace, my L'il Big Sis.

“ Nana was such a wonderful grandma. I have so many memories laughing with her. We enjoyed family time walks down black creek rd, fishing at their pond and going out in the boat. I can almost smell the breakfast her and papa would have prepared early on weekends as we would watch cartoons together! She was precious and I will miss her so much. I'm thankful for all the love she showed us.

“ I cherish the memories of afternoons spent sitting in the livingroom or in the front yard visiting with Louise and Calvin. She was an excellent Christian role model for me as a young wife and mother. I pray that God will comfort all of her children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, Calvin and the many friends and family members who will miss her Earthly presence; until we all meet her again in Heaven.
