“ Eugene & Lamar,

Your mama was a blessing to be with, always loving and so sweet. She held that title of Brown Matriarch for a long while. Now she's with the other Gunters and Browns, the genuine Reunion! We see her legacy and Uncle Earl's in you and your fine children. I'm grateful that y'all stayed close and brought so much joy to her journey here.

Love, Cousin Billy##imported-begin##Billy Cooper##imported-end##

“ Lamar, Eugene & Family: My prayers are with you during this difficult time. But always remember that we'll see Aunt Lucille again someday and we can rejoice knowing that she is no longer in this earthly body. They're probably already having a Brown reunion about now and celebrating her being there.##imported-begin##Claudia Cooper Hinson##imported-end##

“ I know when Aunt Lucille opened her eyes and looked around heaven (Praise the Lord, she can see again) and heard the host of angels singing (and yes, yes, yes, she can hear again) she was so happy to be home. I know all of those that loved her, and they are legion, are hurting from the separation, but we have the hope of seeing her again. My prayers are with all of you###imported-begin##June###imported-end##

“ Dear Gene, Kathi and Family,
It was a pleasure to know Miss Lucille. For all the years she attended Montpelier and as long as she was able, she never failed to make her way to the front of the church and speak to Bryan and Shawn. I rejoice with you at her homegoing, yet know that your heart aches in your loss. My prayers are with you all. Our God is good--always and in all ways God is good.##imported-begin##Emily Estes##imported-end##
