

Lydia Torres

August 3, 1936 - January 25, 2023

Known to so many as "Ummie", Grandma, Abuela, Umm Mariam, Mommy! It is with immeasurable sadness that we say goodbye to our beloved Umm Mariam. She passed away on 01/25/23 surrounded by her loving daughters, leaving behind a legacy of love, joy, happiness, generosity, warmth and stories that will never be forgotten. Ummie was a shining light in our lives, always there with a hug, a dance, a laugh, wit, and an enormous smile. She was not only a mother and grandma to her immediate family, but to many in the extended family which continued to grow throughout the ages. Her love was limitless and unconditional. She was a true matriarch of our family, and her presence will be deeply missed. Her warm vibrant spirit, laughter, and zest for life will forever be etched in our hearts and memories. She had a passion for music, dancing, feeding visitors, and all things TETRIS, and Scrabble! A celebration of life will be held at Heritage Memorial Park, and all are welcome to come and share their memories and love for her.

“ I will always remember Lydia as a fun, exciting, vivacious angel. Her energy could match any teenager. She loved dancing and I always loved how she made everyone around her feel welcome. She will be greatly missed.

“ Ummi I will always remember your beautiful smile and your funny laugh that would make me laugh, and we'd just be laughing trying not to get caught in class. Thank you for all the times you saved me a seat, and for all the smiles you gave me when I didn't have one of my own. May the Ancestors Welcome you with as many smiles as you gave us here. I love you Ummi Mariam.

First met umm Maryam in the summer of 1993 down at the Atlanta tab by her son matin R.I.P. later on when I was coming around to class in Brooklyn in 1994 I saw her on sundays at class in the temple selling cooked meals. We got to know each other when I moved back in the bushwick tab in 1995. And from then on we always had a good relationship even when we lived on tama re when I moved up in October 1997 till July of 2000.

Umy you are and have always been a true Saint within our Tribe. You were one of the first Elders I encountered when entering the Community. I mentioned if lunch was available. You welcomed me into your food pantry without even knowing me. Whenever, I thought of years so many years later, it was your love, kindness, and food pantry. Smiles. Um Miriam you will be missed but never forgotten. May You Be Well Received By Your Ancestors. Love Janet Goins (Clan Mother).

“ What I love most about um Maryam was that when she spoke she sang at the same time. Her voice was a melody. Even in her later years she can still cut a rug. She was always giving... she would give her last piece of bread to anyone needing a meal. And let's not talk about her strength... she was a very strong ummie... I love you um Maryam... you rest now... you deserve to rest... with love Kabira
