“ Lyle will be missed very much, He was a very good husband to my mother, that's why I loved him so much. He made her eyes light up with joy every time they were together.

He taught me how to shoot bow & arrows, how to hunt, and how to be a better man in general.

He was always great to my mother and my family, even though kids were crumb snatchers and curtain climbers at first, until Ayden and Aspen came along, Ha! Ha! Ha!

I'll always miss him & love him. You will be missed ole boy.

“ *The Story of Our Love
For My Husband It's quite a story. It has you.
It has me. It has hope and happiness and smiles, and sometimes, it even has tears. It's a life story. It's a love story. But most of all, it's our story. I hope you know of our life together-you are, without a doubt, my "happily ever after." I Love You Happy Valentines Day

I worked with Lt. Gibbs at Rivers also worked with Dorothy too. Been knowing him since I was 13 or 14. A finer man would be hard to find. They broke the mold. I wish the family the best and just hold on to one another...God bless....R.I .P LT GIBBS
