“ Albeit these many years later, I was saddened to discover this posting online. Similar to the comment posted by Mr. Tom Rozman, I became Gen. Greer’s aide-de-camp when he arrived in Korea. After selection to become his aide, I remember our first conversation in which I remarked that I really knew nothing about being an aide-de-camp. Gen. Greer’s response was, “That’s okay, I don’t know anything about being a general.” That set the tone for a long and rewarding relationship with this mentor, role model, and military colleague. We crossed paths several times again when he served as CG of Ft. Dix while I was working in the post’s SJA Office during law school and again when he was serving in the Pentagon and I was assigned nearby as a JAG officer. His family both then and now was a prime strength in his life and I know they all miss him dearly. Rest In Peace.

“ I had the great privilege of serving as then Brigadier General Greer’s aide-de-camp when he was the Assistant Division Commander for Maneuver in the 2nd Infantry Division in Korea. I learned a great deal from the general during this assignment. He was a mentor I had great respect for and whose example served me well in my following career. Next to his service as a soldier his family was his priority. That priority became mine as well. Thank you General. Another great and good soldier has been welcomed by the Long Gray line.

“ I am sorry that this so late but I just found out that general Greer had passed. I served with the general when he was commander of the 1/5 infantry in Hawaii back in the 60's. The general and I used to run together. At the time I was 25 years old and in good shape but I could not keep up with the general who at the time was a LTC. He was always one of my favorite officers to have served with.

“ To the family my deepest condolences. May your memories provide you a measure of comfort at this time of great sorrow. And may you continue to gain strength and peace from the promises found in Gods word the Bible. At Isaiah 25:8 we have this assurance " he will swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces..."
