

Margaret Kilgore

October 15, 1929 - February 8, 2016

Funeral Services for Mrs. Margaret Kilgore will be held on Friday, February 12, 2016 at 1 PM in the Tabernacle of Praise. Interment will follow in Heritage Memorial Park.

The Family will receive friends at Williams Funeral Home on Thursday from 5 PM to 7PM.

With a mix of joy and sorrow, we announce that our Mother, Margaret Doris Heard Kilgore, 86, peacefully drew her last earthly breath at her home on the evening of February 8, 2016. After a long illness, Mom at last enjoys the heavenly rest she so richly deserves.

Mom was born in the "country" near Zebulon, Georgia on October 15, 1929, to Andrew Jackson Heard and Ada Inora Brand Heard. The youngest of four girls, she outlived her parents and sisters. Mom married Dad, Cada T. Kilgore, Jr., on November 21, 1948, and they made their home in Griffin and subsequently Milledgeville, Georgia where they had "us" their five children. We survive them along with our spouses, children, and grandchildren as follows:

Cada Thomas Kilgore III of Atlanta, GA, Donna (Raymond) Puckett of Milledgeville, GA, David Kilgore of Milledgeville, GA, Penny (Ray) Cagle of Chesapeake, VA, and Jeff (Wendy) Kilgore of Milledgeville, GA; 14 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren.

In addition to raising her family, Mom and Dad developed Furniture City into a retail furniture outlet well known for almost 50 years. She had a sharp eye for building design and was an expert interior decorator though she only had a G.E.D.

An active Christian, Mom was a founding board member and pastor of Tabernacle of Praise, an independent evangelical church whose ministry was to provide a sanctuary for the free praise and worship of God and to serve those in its community who are most in need, physically, financially, and spiritually.

Mom loved to "cut-up" as she called what most refer to as laugh and play. Every summer you would find her in the mountains, with dad, the kids, and neighbors too, of course. The Dillard House was her favorite.

“ Sister Margaret was a blessing to me and my family. You could call on Margaret anytime day or night to pray for you and she was always willing. She gave her all to God and her family and I know she will be missed her on earth but heaven is shouting. I know CT and Betty was standing at the gates to welcome her in. The Kilgore family is in my prayers.
