“ Dear Shirley,
Your mother will truly be missed by all who ever met and loved her as she was a beautiful and loving person. Although with the passing of days, turned into months and years, my thoughts and prayers were there for her. The last time we were together, it seems like only a few months ago, was on a Sunday, as we sat together in the family room or den, and she shared the Sunday morning paper with me. We discussd politics, everything. The lady was sharp! I can still see her there, papers in her lap and on the floor beside her chair. I loved her, Shirley, and will always remember and think of her.##imported-begin##Ashley Hill##imported-end##
