“ We are so sorry for all the family. She was the best neighbor anyone could ask for. When i was sick she always was there with a bowl of soup or really what ever i wanted and she knew what i liked. I could always count on her for anything, If i needed advice she was there, If i needed just a ear to listen to me she was there. And she loved her flowers and could tell me what was a weed or a flower, and when she seen me in the yard she would come over and would get in the dirt right beside me and help me without me even asking her, She was a Very Good Friend! We miss you Mary, I can hear you and Kenny now in heaven together forever. Love always Pete & Denise Hammond
