“ Ohhhh Ethel!! How I love you so! You are the most stubborn person I know! That runs in the family.. we do come from a long line of strong women, so I'm just the same! The last time we spoke will forever be in my heart. I will miss you for the rest of my life! I can't wait to join you in the beautiful reunion of our family when God calls me home. I know that you are finally with your baby, Xavier, and your parents, as well as your brothers and sisters that have gone on before you. I also hope that Bebe and Zadie Lady ran out of the gates of heaven to meet you. You're no longer suffering and for that I am grateful. I know there was a hallelujah party when you arrived! Please know that you were loved and so very close in my heart. Until I see you again at those pearly gates... I'll love and miss you for the rest of my days!

“ Mary and I (sisters) lived close to the church we attended as young teenagers the church announced they were having a “SING.” Mary and I decided to sing “In The Garden”. we knew we were in trouble when we started out on a high note and we kept getting higher and higher, however we finished the song. The poor church people had to endure it! For years to come we talked and laughed about it, now mary you are in the “Big Choir” save a place for me. I will be there, i love you very much mary. your baby sis, Ann.
