“ Maximo has always been a very gentle spoken man when I have seen him. He has always been so polite and was always speaking so highly of his children and family. He was always bragging about how his children were doing in school; such a proud Papa. I pray that you find comfort in each other during this difficult time, and know that there are many people in this community who will miss Maximo. Maximo has always shared parts of himself with my husband and I , to include bring us foods to sample that he has cooked himself. My husband and I enjoy learning about foods from other countries and ethnic backgrounds, so it was a treat to have Maximo share some BBQ with us, and we told him of foods that we like to make and eat. I pray that you will find peace in the days to come.

God Bless each of you.
