“ We know right now that nothing can ease your pain, but you will realize later that Melody is not suffering anymore. Even though we are selfish and want our loved ones with us, we have to let them go when God reaches out his hand to welcome them. I'm sorry that we have not been able to visit you next door at the lake much lately, but hopefully dad can come down more and both of you can talk to each other while you teach him how to fish. Your family is in our hearts and prayers.###imported-begin##Glenn Phillips, Deborah & Jeff Howard, Tim, Kyle, Haylee Phillips, Ted, Leigh, TJ & Cassy Phillips###imported-end##

“ Our familys grew up together. Melody had always made us feel so special. Being a teenger in the 70's and spending weekends in the Rabie house. I always trusted Melody for her advise. Mel was always so pleasant and her laugh would make you laugh even more. It makes me so sad that we only lived 118 miles away from each other but with our busy lives we hadn't had the chance to visit in person. Bill, Christy and Josh I feel your pain. May you find comfort in your hearts knowing that your wife/mother was an amasing person to have for a friend for 40 plus years. “ Melody made a deep impression on me from the first time we met. What a joy it was to get to know her better and have our "talks." As time passed, I found out how creative and giving she could be. Seeing her "hobby" room gave me new insights; she was so modest but had great talent. It was such a pleasure to work with her on some of her "projects." Paul and I often passed her (Timmy by her side), on our walks up and down Lake Crest Drive. To her family, please know that we share your sadness and offer our condolences.##imported-begin##Marilyn Beck & Paul Weitz##imported-end##

“ Bill,
Our deepest sympathy in the loss of Melody. We realize that nothing we say now can ease your pain, but we want you to know that we join you in feelings of emptiness and sadness. We pray this will help strengthen you and the family members.###imported-begin##Bill and

“ Dear Bill, Josh, and Christy,
In the short time that we have known Melody, we have many fond memories of the laughs and tears we shared. She was a wonderful lady with a generous heart and delightful smile. Though she will be missed, we know we will see her later...
May God fill your hearts and minds with the wonderful times of your lives together and erase the hurt of losing her at such a young age. She will always be in your heart.
Our love to each of you,
