“ Sorry to hear about the loss of Mike, I worked with him on numerous occasions when. He drove trucks. He was a good man that I thought a lot of him. Havent seen him in years but thought of him often. He encouraged me to start driving and taught me a lot of what I know about trucks, I am still on the road today. Learned a lot from him and his son David.. Rest in peace brother.

“ I send my sincere condolences to Louise, all family members, and friends. Mike has been my friend for many years. Like him, I'm also an Air Force vet and retired trucker. The proverb “A Friend in Need Is a Friend in Deed” pretty much sums up who Mike Dominy was. He was there to loan me his truck, his tractor, and the list goes on. He never expected anything in return, it's just his nature. Rest in peace my friend.
