“ Mike was my dear friend
He was my talking buddy. I miss it badly. It's hard to do without such a friend. There's nobody to replace Mike in my life. I loved my dear friend. I would always ask him to sing the song (Is it raining at your house like it's raining at mine) when I visited him
U can hear it on UTube. Mike was a good man and I will not forget him as long as I live. I'll. Be seeing you Mike in Heaven. You are missed.

“ I have known Mike for at least 30 years if not longer since the mid 1980s fact then he was an avid musician and he has always been since I've known him right up until the end anybody looking to hear his music it's on YouTube under Mike E Pullium or Mike Pullium And you can easily get in tune with who he was on YouTube. He's got like 20 different videos he's done on there so there's a lot to look at but up until the end. I was his best friend. I almost talk to him every day until he died and now I talk to him a different way. He was a good guy, though what everyone says I don't know, but I know he had been married at least twice before he married The last time his wife died but he loved them all and he talked about them a lot. He knew he wasn't a very good husband type that always seemed to screw him up, but he was a good guy and he loved his music and he did his carpentry. He worked for me for the past 10 years now he's lived in my house he's lived in my apartments. He's been around me all this time so I own a construction company in Athens and he's been working me forever and I've listened to his music and he's always done a really good job a little different than everyone else but I'll miss him forever. I hope you all miss him too. He was a good guy.

“ So sorry to hear of Michael's passing. He was a classmate of mine and I remember him being a fighter. For his size, he would not back down from anything or anybody. Had a good sense of humor also.
RIP
