“ Unfortunately I did not have time to get to know Ms. Layfield like I would have liked to-when I first started going to Emmanuel she was one of the first that you kinda just bond to without really knowing why- but I loved to be around her and I thank God for the influence that she had on my life- I can't even imagine for those that knew her at any great length of time- I wish to send my condolences to each of you and to say that I know today God said welcome home my child to another one of us

Ms Layfield... I can honestly say you were like a second mother to me back in the day as well as in the present. You always greeted me with your smile and caring ways. We shared a lot of laughs with one another. I am truly saddened by your passing! I pray Elaine, Griffin and Steve can find peace in their hearts! You will be truly missed! Rest peacefully! I loved you! Cary
