

Mildred Teague

September 13, 1934 - December 27, 2017

Mildred Ruth Cox Teague, 83 years of age, passed away on December 27, 2017. Visitation will be Saturday, 12/30/2017, at 2pm at Williams Funeral Home. The memorial service will be held at 3pm with Rev. Harry Micheals officiating. Arrangements by Williams Funeral Home.

Mildred was born in Hamilton, Ohio to parents Elias Cox and Minnie Frances Settle Cox on September 13, 1934. She graduated from Hamilton High School in Hamilton, OH.

She married Burl Teague on July 14, 1956 in Hamilton, OH and they had three children—twins, Steven and Michelle and two years later, Tammy. While her children were young, Mildred was a scout leader and involved in multiple groups at their church.

She attended Oxford University, New Miami, OH. She worked for several years as an executive secretary at Wright Patterson Air Force Base, Dayton, OH. She retired in 2001 from Central State Hospital where she was employed as a Medical Transcriptionist.

She is preceded in death by her father Elias Cox and mother Minnie Cox, her sister Phyllis Conerly, father-in-law Silas Teague and mother-in-law Ruby Ellen Leach Teague.

Mildred is survived by her children's father, Burl Teague, son Steve Teague (Tangye Teague), daughter Michelle Brown (Ken Brown), and daughter Tammy Correa (Errol Correa), sisters Margie Robinson and Virginia Moore. Grandchildren—Jessica Castillo (Ryan Castillo), Caleb Teague, Caitlin Correa, Juliana Correa, Anna Brown, and Clay Brown.

Memorials may be given to Crisis Prevention Center- Milledgeville or Wounded Warriors Program. The family wishes to extend our sincere thanks to Athens Regional Hospital, PGH, and Lynn Haven Nursing Home doctors, nurses, and staff for their loving kindness and care.
