“ Russ and family-

I am so sorry for the loss of Mimi. She was a wonderful person and always supportive when I was teaching Russ in homeschool. I am so sorry I did not know about this or I would have been at the funeral. My heart is so heavy now, as she was always so spunky and full of life. I appreciate all she did and you, as well Russ. Your family was a blessing and such a support in my time of need. I will be praying for you all. Lean in God's arms as he is the support you need in your life now. My prayers will continue for you to share your memories, write her letters and continue on with life. I know that is what she would have wanted.

Her fight to provide the best for her children was evident as she fought for autistic children to have the same as others, as they are just like everyone else- just the neurons in the brain fire differently. She loved and was very much loved.

Again, I am so sorry for the loss. Again my prayers are with you and your family.

“ I was so very sorry to hear of Mimi's death. I knew her when we were younger in Athens, and she was just a great person. Kind, sincere, fun. She was just too young to leave us. Mrs. Argo, I am so sad for the loss of your oldest daughter. Karen Williams

“ Oh my, I am very saddened to hear about Mimi. as her next door neighbor when I was little, I loved to go to her room that was covered with David Cassidy posters and play Barbie dolls with her and Amy and Marty. She had all the “stuff” that went along with Barbie. The house, the cars, the horses, and the clothes. She was always so fun to be around! She was like a sister! My heart hurts for all of you and my prayers will be with you!

Sending so much love!

“ I am so saddened to hear of Mimi's passing. She is such a beautiful person inside and out. She is one of the first people I met at a Spectrum meeting about 20 years ago. She was always so helpful with advice and encouragement. I always looked forward to spending time with her. This world has truly lost a loving light. Praying for your family.

“ *Russ and Family,
We are sincerely saddened by the news of Mimi's homegoing, but are encouraged that our friend has gone to be with our Lord. Mimi left a footprint of kindness, compassion, and joy in my heart. Praying you will be comforted with precious memories and God's presence now and forever.
