*That was a wonderful tribute to Natalie. She was a wonderful person and a true friend. She would do anything for you. She was a blessing to me and I am glad that God put her in my life. It was a blessing that Callie and my kids grew up together in the school system. We worked together for 8 years at Gray Element art and I'm sure the kids felt like they lived there. I can remember Natalie always telling me, "This too shall pass." She was such a positive person. She was definitely loved by all. My prayers and thoughts are with you all. Lots of love.

“ Mike,
So very sorry! Natalie was so beautiful inside and out. I will never forget what she told me after a mission trip to Russia, she said that she would never do anything again that did not have eternal value. She lived that. We who had the blessing of knowing her were always inspired to live better and do better for the cause of Christ. I love you Mike, always have and I'm praying for you and Callie. You my dear friend were Natalie's hero to the end!
Much Love,
