“ I first met Nate at SunTrust Bank when he moved to the area. He always had a bright and loving smile on his face. He would always have something nice to say or always said something funny. He was full of life and really enjoyed cooking for the local area at Silver moon. Nate, may you always have a smile on your face. “ Nate was a true and genuine friend. He was the kind of person that everyone loved to be around. He used to sneak up on me and then laugh when I screamed and jumped. He would tell me jokes and then laugh at them himself, which in turn, made me laugh. He was a caring and considerate person who always made you feel important. He was truly interested in what you had to say, and always offered a friendly smile. There was an ease and comfort that emanated from him. His smile, always a mile wide, is an image I keep in my head, his laugh, I keep in my heart. Thank you God for loving us enough to give us the gift of Nate, if only for awhile. What a special gift he was! You left a sweet imprint on many people Nate, we will miss you terribly.##imported-begin##Sandy Hartle##imported-end##
