Tracey is right you are the world's best DADDY! My favorite memories growing up were watching you, uncle Hugh and Kieth playing ball with the church team. Our vacations to Disney. Bush Gardens, Key West. Christmas mornings I would wake up play with all the toys before I would wake Tracey and Missy. Later when you moved back home I loved our trips down the river laughing at Jesse and Daniel climbing up the bank. Going to your house watching you in the pool. Jimmy found you the zero turn mower you was wanting so bad, you were so proud of it no one else was aloud to drive it unfortunately you became so sick shortly after you could no longer ride it. You taught us to always work hard for what we wanted you loved all of us so much! You fought for all of us until the very end. WE wanted you but GOD wanted you more. You are at peace now no more hospitals and no more pain. I LOVE YOU ALWAYS AND FOREVER! LYNN

“ My thoughts and prayer are with you all at this time.
Neal was one of my brothers from another mother.
We had so much fun together, I loved to hear him laugh.
He is going to be missed for a long time.
RIP !

“ To the world's best Daddy, We love you so much. You have been a rock for us all. You have always been a worker and a doer, never one to sit still, always tinkering on something even when you were sick. We will miss you madly. I only regret that we didn't get to float down the Ocmulgee one last time. Hope you find peace on a big river in heaven, just float and fish and wait on all of us (cause you know we are always late). I love you . Tracey

“ To my dearest, my love. You have been my light for 35 years and will be forever and always with me. You never failed me and made me feel loved every day of our lives together. You have been my greatest blessing and been the most incredible father to our beautiful children and grandfather to our grandchildren. I thank you for all you have done and been. My precious man, please continue to love life and enjoy your time to be finally healthy and at peace. You gave me and everyone who knew you your all. Now is your time to reap the rewards for all your goodness. Our hearts will never be parted. Forever and always, your wife.

*To the family,
Neal was a special man , a hard worker, a loyal family man and I'm glad to have had you in my life for my early years. You were a father figure to me , an Uncle and a trusted friend who taught me how to be a man. I will always cherish our memories from long long ago. Rest in Peace and God Bless you Neal Jackdon !!*
